Meet the Candidates

For County Treasurer

This is the third in a series of articles that will bring short life sketches of candidates for nomination for County Offices in the Fall Primary Election to be held in September. This article covers the two candidates for the office of County Treasurer, Archie Howse and A. L. Roberts.

Archie Howse, who is seeking the Republican nomination for the office of County Treasurer, is a native son, having been born in Maple Forest Township on May 9, 1900.

He attended the Woodburn School in Maple Forest and the Frederic School. Mr. Howse is married and has one son. He has served as the Maple Forest Township Supervisor for two years and as the township Supervisor on the Crawford County Board of Supervisors for 13 years.

The Republican candidate is president of the Crawford County Dairy Co-operative Association at the present time and a member of the County Grange No. 934. Mr. Howse operates a dairy farm in Maple Forest and has been a life-long resident of Crawford County except for one year when he was employed by the Standard Oil Company at Whiting, Indiana.

A. L. Roberts, former mayor of Grayling, is seeking nomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of County Treasurer. Mr. Roberts was born at Reed City, Oscoda County, Michigan, on August 27, 1884.

As an older child of a large family, he received only grammar school education having to go to work to aid the family. Mr. Roberts points out that night study completed his education, "the hard way." He has been a member of the Grayling City Council for 20 years and served the last two years as Mayor until forced to resign upon being named County Treasurer until election time.

He is married and the father of two daughters by previous marriage. A member of the local Masonic order, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Bay City Consistory, Saginaw Shrine and the Grayling Evangelical Church.

Mr. Roberts was general superintendent for the Kerry and Hanson Flooring Company from 1915 to 1920. He then went out on his own as inspector for the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association, checking grades, books and shipments. October 10 will mark 45 years since the Democratic office seeker moved to Crawford County.

Trudgeon Named Liaison Officer

If war comes, Michigan is ready on the home front.

Thousands of citizens will soon be organized for civil defense purposes by the Michigan Civil Defense Council, which is now being organized by the Michigan Civil Defense Council.

The organization work is going on under the leadership of the Civil Defense Council appointed by Governor Williams. A committee consisting of State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, Colonel Lester J. Mattland of the Aeronautics Department, Lawrence J. LaLonde of the Veterans' Trust Fund, and Lawrence L. Farrell, executive secretary to Governor Williams, selected a Ground Observer Corps liaison officer in each county.

In appointing the state committee Governor Williams specified that persons were to be picked for civil leadership, with experience, in order, and in the armed forces air corps, army services other than air, or in the event of war, with civil defense in World War II.

The liaison officer in Crawford County is Roy E. Trudgeon of Grayling. County liaison officers are now selecting supervisors to man the observation posts picked by the Air Corps in their counties. Observers will be responsible for watching the skies for about eight miles in every direction from each post. Ground observers will have a simpler task than in World War II, civil defense, being responsible only for detecting planes flying too low for radar detection. The Air Force already has radar equipment spotted to detect high flying planes.

Supervisors will secure citizens volunteers for four hours of watching duty weekly. At present post crews will be limited to about 20 persons and watching to training periods, but in the event of war, crews will be expanded to more than 40 persons at once.

The Ground Observer Corps is the third major civil defense development. Cities of 10,000 or more already have complete local defense programs under way, with a director in each city appointed by the mayor. State police already are prepared to give immediate notice of an air raid to every community of 1,000 or more population, and the sheriffs in each county will reach smaller communities.

The state program was started last February when Governor Williams, anticipating trouble because of the continued difficult relations with Russia, appointed an Advisory Council for Disaster Relief and Civil Defense. When the Korean war broke out, the Council had completed basic plans and was ready to go into action.

RAY WAITE INTERRED HERE

Ray Waite of Standish died at his home Thursday evening. He had been ill for the past six months. Born June 24, 1903, in Rose City, he married the former Miss Stella Green in 1927 at Grayling. He was employed by the New York Central Railroad for many years at St. Helen and West Branch before moving to Standish in 1947. He worked as section foreman in Standish until he was forced to quit in January due to ill health. Survivors are his widow, one daughter, Lucille; three sons, Ray, Jr., Carl and Walter, all of Standish; one brother, Arthur of Midland; and three sisters, Mrs. Eva Strobe, of St. Charles, Mrs. Ethel Horning of Grayling, and Mrs. Bertha Dirsch of Mason. The body was at the Howard Funeral Home and Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock a prayer service was held. The body was brought to Grayling for funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. June Taylor furnished music. The Rev. H. E. Moore, of the Standish Methodist Church officiated and burial was at Elmwood Cemetery, Grayling.

48th At Camp Grayling Aug. 12

Firing ranges at Michigan's historic Hanna military reservation at Camp Grayling will echo to the sound of the greatest barrage of weapons firing ever heard in that area this year starting August 12 when the 48th "Iron Fist" Infantry Division concentrates there for 15 days of field training.

Major General Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general, has issued orders that all Guardsmen will become proficient with their assigned weapons during the encampment. Adequate supplies of ammunition are on hand to permit familiarization and record firing for all personnel.

New weapons to be fired on the 80,000 acres reservation this year will include the 155 millimeter "Long Tom" rifles mounted on M-4 tank chassis recently received by the 979th FA Battalion of Detroit. This artillery piece will hit a 100 lb. shell approximately 18 miles, but its range at Grayling will be less. Other new weapons to be fired will include the 57 and 75 millimeter recoilless rifles.

A special train has been scheduled to transport more than 70 tanks, mostly medium M-4 Sherman tanks, to the Guard's recently completed armored center northeast of Grayling. Bazookas, mortar howitzers, and demolitions in addition to the usual support arms will also be fired by the Michigan "Minutemen."

Local Golfer Gets Hole In One

Lloyd Glerke "hit the jackpot" last Saturday while playing golf at the Grayling Golf Club. Glerke, who is one of the better golfers around Grayling, latched on to a tee shot on the 140 yard third hole at the local course and dropped it into the cup for a hole in one.

The lucky golfer used a number eight iron for the shot. This is the first reported hole in one at the local course since it opened following the war. Before that time, the number of ace shots has been extremely low. The chances of a hole in one must be well over a million to one.

Work Completed On Catholic Shrine

Work has been finished on a Catholic Shrine "The Little Cathedral in the Pines" near the home of Morris Burdick on US-27 north of Grayling.

Father John Brientein will dedicate and bless the beautiful shrine amongst the pines on August 15. The shrine was built upon the promise of Mr. Burdick who made such a promise at the operation on the eyes of his friend, Mrs. Amelia Gillett of Ellsworth, who is a sister of Mrs. Almira Smock of Frederic. Mrs. Gillett was blind and Mr. Burdick promised the erection of the shrine if Mrs. Gillett's eyesight was restored by the operation which took place on May 19, 1949 at Traverse City.

Among those who worked on the shrine were H. Vanderbusche of Detroit, Harry Burdick of Van Dyke, Elmer Burdick of Detroit, Ed Burdick and son, Dick, of Detroit and Ralph Jungman of Frederic.

The central figure of the shrine is Our Lady of Grace which was furnished by St. Mary's Altar Society, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong of Frederic supplied all of the stone, while Mrs. Harry Horton furnished the cement.

Wesley LaGrove, Richard Lovely, Lawrence Hunter and John Peterson of Grayling and John McCullum and Frank Cherven of Roscommon, members of the Knights of Columbus built the road into the shrine from highway US-27.

Kiwanis Club Notes

"The Constant Crusade," an article from the June issue of the national Kiwanis magazine, was the basis of the program at the regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling held Monday evening at the Lone Pine Inn.

Art Clough, chairman of the Clubs education committee was in charge of the meeting and read the opening paragraphs of the article. Following this the article was passed from member to member with each reading aloud one paragraph of the article.

The magazine story told of the history of the Kiwanis objectives and projects over the past 35 years in which the organization has been in existence. For the first ten years or so, objectives and projects were purely local in character, but in 1922 the board of directors of Kiwanis International took up the matter of national objectives from Kiwanis at large for each year. The article described the evolution of these objectives year by year up to the present time.

Air Guard Reviewed By Governor And State Guard Officers

Bad Weather Still Plagues Fighters

The officers and men of the 172nd Fighter Squadron, Michigan Air National Guard training at the Grayling McNamara Airport were inspected last Saturday by Governor G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and high ranking officers of the Michigan National Guard.

Bad flying weather the first of this week continued to keep flying training schedules in arrears, but, officers of the 172nd Squadron hoped for better weather during the last of the week to catch up again on their heavy firing and flying training courses.

Here with Michigan's Governor Saturday to review the fighter squadron's training was Brig. General George C. Moran, adjutant general of Michigan, Major General Ralph A. Loveland, commanding general of Michigan's 48th Division, Brig. General Frederick R. Anderson, commanding general of the Michigan Air Guard, Lt. Colonel Donald Armstrong of the Air Guard, Lt. Colonel Walter Nicol, assistant U. S. P. and D. O. officer for air in Michigan, Major Cecil E. Burpee, Captains George Lessel and Mead and the Governor's aide, George Kerr.

Governor Williams also inspected Michigan Air Guards training at Selfridge Field and Romulus on Saturday. He expects to return to Grayling on the week end of August 19 and 20 for the Governor's review of Michigan's Iron Fist 48th Division ground troops.

Low ceilings and rain have held back the 172nd's air training but ground training scheduled have been carried out with but a few changes.

See Oil Field West Of City

W. H. Strickler of Clare, formerly exploration manager for Sohio Petroleum Company in Michigan and Canada, is drilling a deep test oil well in the SW 1/4 of the SP 1/4 of Section 27, Clearwater Township, Kalamazoo County. The well is about nine miles west of Grayling, 3 miles west of the Manistee River Bridge on M-72 and about a 1/4 mile south of the highway. The drilling rig is easily discernable from the road.

The well has shown a considerable amount of gas at the top of the Traverse formation which lies about 2,053 feet below the surface. This indicates an extremely favorable outlook for the area, according to informed oil field men. Strickler's well is projected as for the Richfield tract; that is to about 4,200 feet deep.

The acreage acquired by the driller is a farmout from his former company, Sohio, and is a direct result of exploration work carried out by Sohio as far back as 1943.

The J. V. Wicklund Development Company of Detroit, is drilling another deep test well about 4 miles south of the Strickler well. It is located in the SE 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Section 17 of South Clearwater township, Kalamazoo County. The Wicklund well is now approaching the 4,200 foot depth.

20 Million See Area Features

Televised features made recently in Eastern Central Michigan will be seen by an average audience of approximately twenty million persons, according to word received here today from Robert Blair, staff member of "Camel Caravan."

Blair recently made motion pictures of 14 features in Michigan which have been used during the past three weeks on "Camel Caravan" over NBC Television. Several of these features were also used on "Gillette Cavalcade of Sports," "World Round-Up," and "Watch the World."

Features included an archery sequence at Grayling including the manufacture of archery equipment, pike fishing in the Fletcher Flood Water, Thunder Bay River canoe race, Cedarbrook trout ponds, Prehistoric Gardens at Ossineke, Mackinac Island, Johnson's Deer Preserve at Houghton Lake, Indian River horseback pack trip in Osage County, fish research program on Pigeon River, Grayling Trout Hatchery, the AuSable "Donut Waders" at Luzerne, Jackson's illuminated cascades and others.

He was accompanied by Andrew Munch of the East Michigan Tourist Association.

Frank Davis, secretary-treasurer of EMFA, stated this is the finest national tourist publicity Michigan has received so far this year. The estimated audience of the Camel Caravan is twenty million persons.

Comins Drops Grayling, 10-6

The Grayling Independents lost a game to Comins there, 10-6 last Sunday in a North Central Michigan Baseball League contest and at the same time lost their hold for the time being of the league leadership.

Tied with Houghton Lake before the contest for the league lead, Grayling, lost while Houghton Lake who was scheduled to meet Mio there, were rained out. The Lakers were to make up the contest during this week.

Next Sunday marks the last regularly scheduled league game for Grayling when they travel to Roscommon to take on the fast improving Shamrocks. League playoff games are set for Sundays, August 13, 20 and 27.

Comins used Rhodes and Abbe on the mound with Emig behind the plate and picked up 10 runs on 10 hits and 7 big Grayling errors. Horning started for Grayling and was relieved by Bernie Sadjak in the sixth inning. Ross Thompson was behind the plate. Grayling's 6 runs came on 8 hits and 3 Comins errors.

Comins pushed 3 runs over in the initial inning and added 1 in the fifth 3 in the sixth, 2 in the seventh. Grayling tallied once in the opening inning, added 3 in the second, 1 in the fifth and 1 in the eighth.

First County Reserve Called To Service

Richard Bileski of Grayling, a reserve in the United States Air Corps was the first Crawford County man to be recalled to active service.

Bileski, who served in the Air Corps following the last war, received a telegram Wednesday morning ordering him to report at Scott Field, Illinois, on August 11.

Auto Crash Injures Four People

A head-on automobile crash Monday afternoon injured four persons when a car driven by Bill Leng of Frederic and another driven by Claes M. Corin of New York City were in collision about one mile south of Frederic on US-27. Mr. Corin was accompanied by his brother, Nils M. Corin of Sweden who is visiting in this country.

The crash occurred about 2:30 in the afternoon during a heavy downpour of rain. The cause was believed to be poor visibility plus a slippery blacktop pavement. Mr. Leng suffered a dislocated hip. He was accompanied by Mr. Elroy Barber of Frederic who suffered severe face lacerations. Both are confined to Mercy Hospital. The two men in the other car suffered minor injuries and were released from Mercy Hospital on Tuesday morning.

A car driven by Harvey Thompson, 59, of Detroit overturned about 8 1/2 miles south of Grayling on M-18 and 76 (old US-27) at 3 P. M. Monday during a heavy rain.

This accident which involved no other cars, was investigated by Sheriff William Goinick. The driver suffered a fractured left collar bone and some ribs and was taken to Mercy Hospital.

Alfred Sorenson Adds Resuscitator Service

Alfred Sorenson owner of the Sorenson Funeral Home and Ambulance Service has added a new service, an Emerson resuscitator for the convenience of Grayling and vicinity. This unit is kept in the ambulance at all times. Similar machines have saved many lives. It can be used for asphyxia neonatorum, surgical emergencies, gas or drug poisoning, electric shock, heart attacks, drowning and all other short term respiratory failures and is suitable for transporting polio patients short distances.

The machine is safe, furnishing automatic positive and negative resuscitation which ventilates the lungs more completely than manual "prone pressure" and has been found by medical research to be more effective than intermittent positive pressure without a negative phase. Manual artificial respiration however, should not be neglected but should be started immediately in any case where a resuscitator is not instantly at hand.

Crawford County is fortunate in having such a life saving device at its service.

Tickets Here Soon For Legion Excursion

Tickets for the baseball excursion to Detroit via the New York Central Railroad and sponsored by the Grayling Post 108, American Legion are expected to be here for sale any day now, it was reported. The excursion will take place on Saturday, September 16 and will feature a Detroit Tiger-New York Yankee ball game. Price for round trip to Detroit on the train and a reserved seat at the game will be $10.00.

A recent caller in Grayling was Thomas Leith of Brighton, Michigan, who is running for nomination for Governor on the Republican ticket. He is mayor of Brighton and the chairman of the County Board of Supervisors there.

His slogan is "Take Government Out of the Reds, Reds Out of the Government."

The Highway Department pointed out a new center stripe on M-72 west of Grayling the first part of this week.

An Anti-Governor Williams move is afoot in the state," reports the Grand Rapids Press.

Basis for the conclusion was an attack made by Charles E. Edgecomb of Detroit, president of the Michigan Truman clubs and Wayne county auditor, against the Americans for Democratic Action unit in the state. Speaking at a Grand Rapids Democratic rally, Edgecomb assailed the Michigan ADA segment of the Democratic party as being "Marxist missionaries."

We quote the Press: "Edgecomb asserted the ADA has taken over the Democratic machinery in Michigan, Minnesota and Connecticut and that it is unduly influenced the executive branch of our state government."

"The speaker, former housing director of Detroit, declared the ADA in Michigan led by Hilda Griffiths, former state chairman of the Democratic party, had tried to defeat President Truman in his bid for the Democratic nomination in 1948 and in the state has left nothing undone to weaken, supersede, circumvent and in effect destroy the position of authority of our national committee, George Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald was elected national committee man at the 1948 convention.

"Praising President Truman as an 'average American' seeing an 'all-American program,' Edgecomb likened Lt. Gov. John W. Connolly to the president.

"One breath of political fresh air you get as you pass through Lansing en route to Grand Rapids is the honesty and integrity of Connolly and Roth (Attorney General Stephen J. Roth) and a few others who are not studiously avoided entanglements with intellectual phonies," declared Edgecomb.

"Because of the impossibility of working as Democrats under Griffiths in Michigan, a large group under the leadership of our national committeeman friend, the Truman Democratic club of Michigan," the speaker added, "it was this group that Edgecomb made it clear that as long as Governor Williams associates with the ADA, he would be opposed by a segment of Michigan Democrats.

"The Wayne County auditor declared, 'we as Democrats must be selected. But we as Democrats must also unload our fifth column. The only way we can do this constructively is to demand that any candidate running under the Democratic banner run as a Democrat that he denounce or renounce any affiliation, endorsement or association with the ADA. Failing to do this, we must consider these candidates regardless of how high the office, as tools using the Democratic party for ulterior purposes. There is no room in this party for those who wear political cloaks that are used by Democrats to which cover up a Marxist philosophy.'"

The reporter for the Grand Rapids newspaper then related how William H. Carpenter, state central committeeman, took the floor to "defend the name of our governor." Carpenter was quoted as follows:

"I'll defend the ADA if I have to. Gov. Williams full credit. When the speaker omitted the governor's name in mentioning the breath of political fresh air, he meant the governor creates a bad smell and a stench, didn't he? Gov. Williams is the inheritor of the policies of Frank Murphy and is the only Democrat to trade blows with the Republicans. My sympathies are with Edgecomb. This came here instilled in mind by said George Fitzgerald, our national committeeman."

The Grand Rapids newspaper reporter then added this interpretation: "Observers reviewing Edgecomb's speech pointed out the Democrat left Democrats three choices in the coming election. Edgecomb replied, they declared, that Democrats can vote for Williams, vote for a Republican or 'sit tight' and not vote for a governor."

"They pointed out that Edgecomb's group would probably prefer the third method of combatting Williams if the governor does not come around to their line of thinking."

The above news story from Grand Rapids is quoted as proof Michigan Democrats like Michigan Republicans, have their own internal family row. It is interesting to observe, however, that the charges by Edgecomb—as president of Michigan Truman clubs—were also made by Republicans in the 1948 state campaign for highway commissioner and state superintendent of public instruction.

We have a hunch that Edgecomb's attack on the ADA will multiply the Republican assault against Williams on the ground that he is unduly influenced by "fifth column" socialists who pose as Democrats. The Detroit Democrat has furnished new ammunition.

Soviet's Atomic Weapon

Should the United States go in for an aggressive "Marshall plan of ideas" to implement its material assistance to the Western world? Senator Benton of Connecticut, who has been urging this move in Congress, thinks so and his belief is shared by a great many people who are gravely disturbed by the success of Russia's high-powered propaganda.

The masters of the Kremlin are thorough. They have pressed ahead in the cold war with weapons, with what amounts to blackmail on a high international level, and they have been clever and efficient in using their satellites as instruments of conquest. They have developed well-trained undergrounds everywhere, including the United States, whose duty is to advance the cause of communism by every conceivable means—including, in the event of all-out war, sabotage and destruction on a far broader scale than most Americans seem to be able to contemplate. The evidence in this regard which the FBI has painstakingly gathered over the years, some of which was recently made public, shows that the Politburo leaves no stone unturned. And, in addition, the Russians regard propaganda as one of the most important of all weapons.

In one of his late columns, Marquis Childs described the pattern of Soviet propaganda in Germany. He wrote, "Basic elements in this pattern are the petitions for peace and against the atomic bomb being circulated by the millions in both zones of Germany. These same petitions were signed by several million North Koreans beginning in 1947 when they were first introduced. "The objective is clear. It is to identify communism with peace and to put the United States in the role of aggressor holding the terror weapon of the atomic bomb over the heads of peace-loving peoples everywhere. If and when the United States should resort to the atomic weapon... then the base would be prepared to foment a world-wide hatred for America."

FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

August 4, 1927

One of the best bits of news received for this week's issue is the announcement that the U. S. government at the close of the fiscal year has a $635,000,000 surplus.

Red Cross brings important lessons to Grayling—Addressing the several hundred people who occupied the natural grandstand overlooking Lake Margrethe Sunday afternoon, Commander Longfellow spoke from the water and with Theodore Czerkowski of Camp Geyah, Gaylord, as his assistant demonstrated swimming strokes and life saving methods.

Grayling trout almost extinct. Since 1919 the taking of Grayling has been prohibited. The remnant of this once widely distributed species in Michigan is now to be found only in the Otter River, Houghton County. This river was thoroughly explored and a careful count made, the result of which showed between 600 and 700 Grayling in the stream. The history of Grayling in Michigan reads like fiction. Once so numerous that men not yet old recalled instances where they almost choked streams during their migrations, and inhabiting nearly all the rivers and streams in the northern part of lower Michigan, they gradually but surely disappeared from every stream in this region. Efforts to propagate them at hatcheries met only with failure. Some one has named them Trout of the Pines and it is literally true that like the pines, the Grayling have succumbed before the advance of civilization.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Even Wiser than He Seems

PLAINLY, here travels a man wise in the ways of fine motorcars.

You know that, by the four Ventiports and the rich sweep of chrome which mark his car as a ROADMASTER.

You know it, should you trail him on the highway, by the smooth lift of the big Fireball power plant at his toe's command, by the obvious levelness of the ride he enjoys, the swift ease with which Dynaflo Drive solves his traffic problems.

What is not so plain from what you see is that here also is a man very wise in what today's dollar should buy!

For this man has all that a fine-car owner can ask for—brilliant performance, a ride without equal for gentle softness, finger-easy handling, abundant room all around him, styling that is easily the most distinguished on the highway.

Yet he paid considerably less than comparable merit costs elsewhere.

He found fewer extra charges in his delivered price, with such things as Dynaflo Drive, foam rubber cushions, windshield washers, electric clock, even non-glare rear-view mirror included in the price.

If you know fine cars, it won't take fifteen minutes behind a ROADMASTER wheel to see that here is one of the finest.

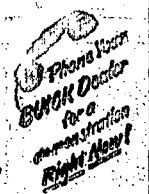

If you have inquired about prices, a single glance at the delivered figures establishes this as the big buy of the field.

Why not make both checks—especially since your Buick dealer will be glad to arrange a trial run in a ROADMASTER any time you care to call on him?

Let's write to Joe Stalin!
This suggestion is made by Carl M. Saunders, editor of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot who won the Pulitzer prize for the most outstanding newspaper editorial in 1949. We quote:

All over America Communists and gullible stooges are circulating "peace petitions."
The petitions are phony because they assume to ask for outlawing the atomic bomb, although it is

Russia which has blocked efforts of the United Nations to set up an honest program for control of atomic weapons.

They are phony also because they pretend to have the backing of the United Nations and Trygve Lie, secretary, although both the UN and Mr. Lie have condemned the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

A few people actuated only by dread of war and an honest desire for peace have signed these petitions. That's where Red propaganda scores! Why not offset that score? We Americans believe in peace. We didn't want to go into Korea. In fact, we got out once. We are fighting today under direction of the United Nations and under the flag of that world-wide organization. Why not say so? Why not tell the chief of all the Russians that we're for peace and ask him to co-operate?

Let's write to Joseph Stalin, premier of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, telling him that we're for peace and asking him to cut out the dirty work and join up. Isn't that a good idea?

Each of us write a postcard to: Premier Joseph Stalin, care of the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C.

On that postcard we could say something like this: "Dear Mr. Premier: 'Communists—in this country say you want peace. 'So do we—really! Fake peace petitions don't fool us. The way to peace is to call your Red friends out of South Korea and quit bullying small non-Communist nations. 'We'll get out of South Korea as soon as your gang does.

"Also we'll outlaw the atom bomb if you'll permit constant surveillance of all laboratories and factories which might produce the bomb."

"Don't let your agents mislead you. We lambaste President on home affairs; but so far as Korea or any other threat from outside the U. S., we're back of the President all the way."

Probably you can write a better postcard note than that. You can say that you don't want your boy or your neighbor's boy to have to fight; but you want Stalin to know that they will fight if needed and if they do it's really peace they're fighting for.

But anyway, let's write to Joe. Let's get it off our chests. Buy your postcard and send it along, and urge others in your family to do the same. A postcard costs only one cent.

This may sound silly, but it isn't. We know that Russia gets a great lot of misleading information from its agents in this country just as did Hitler, who thought we wouldn't fight. We know also that the Russian embassy reports to Moscow even little things which show trends. It's just possible that, if the postcard shower spreads, Russia might decide reports of disunity in America aren't true. Let's do it! Write a postcard to Joe Stalin!

Guide To Fishing

By JACK SCHWEIGERT
Roving Reporter

The leading question seems to be: What is the difference between a May fly and Caddis fly? The Vicarium, Fuscum, Cupidua, Bicolor, Candensis, Billigata, Varia and numerous others are species of the May fly family. The May flies emerge from the nymph stage and usually leave a shuck or skin when it hatches out. The wings of the May fly set more in an upright position, and they have long tails. Are commonly called Fish Flies, Canada Flies, or Drakes.

The Scabripennis, Frontalis, Lobifera, Atterring, Slossonae and several other species are of the Caddis Fly Family. They emerge from cases which are made of little sticks, and some look like little pebbles, while others the smaller Caddis larvae have little nets that attach themselves to rocks, etc. The wings of the Caddis flies lay down their backs more like a roof, they do not have long tails and they have antennae.

The species of May fly is one of the largest and somewhat different from the rest, and very often erroneously called Caddis.

If you can remember those names let me know, I will send the question to you next time it comes up. So now lets go fishing.

The high time from the 3rd to 5th is from 4 to 7 A. M. The 6th and 7th from 6 to 10 A. M., the 8th and 9th from 8 to 11 A. M. During these dates the evening fishing will be fair from 5 to 7 P. M. The middle of day will be spotty for the Barometer must be up to make fishing good.

Any question that you may have concerning fishing will be answered if you address them to "Guide to Fishing," Box 41, Roscommon, Mich.

Add Member To Mercy Hospital Board

Appointment of James F. Duffy to the Advisory Board of the Sisters of Mercy Hospital, Grayling, Michigan, was announced by Luke C. Leonard, a member of the board. Mr. Duffy is a prominent corporation attorney, and is well-known in Detroit and throughout the State. He was coach for the University of Detroit from 1917 to 1924, and served in the U. S. Navy as an officer in the First World War. During Governor William A. Comstock's regime he was Box- ing Commissioner for the State. This appointment fills a vacancy caused by the recent death of Frank M. Sparks of Grand Rapids.

The Advisory Board of the hospital was expanded about the turn of the year in reflection of plans for marked expansion of facilities and service at the Grayling institution. Other members are: Edgar A. Guest, Detroit Free Press poet; John C. Lehr, former United States Attorney at Detroit (now Commander of The Macabees for Michigan); Hon. Homer Ferguson, U. S. Senator; Harry Wismer, WJR radio sports announcer, Detroit; Norman Beasley, top-flight author, New York City; Emil Kraus, president, Commonwealth Casualty Co., Grayling; Sister Mary Stella Kearney; John Maynard, retired executive of J. C. Penny Company, Lansing, Michigan; Major John E. Fass, engineer, Grand Rapids; David I. Hubar, a corporation counselor, Detroit; Lloyd L. Lardiere Studios, Detroit; Luke C. Leonard, president, Leonard, Inc., Detroit; Miss Florence J. DeCoursey, secretary and treasurer, Leonard, Inc.

For more than 40 years the Sisters of Mercy Hospital at Grayling has served a dozen surrounding counties in addition to the Grayling area, affording the only complete hospital facilities in the north central portion of lower Michigan, between Bay City and Traverse City.

As in World War II, the hospital will in addition be of service to the personnel of nearby Camp Grayling and Grayling Air Base of the Michigan National Guard. Recently, the Sisters are alerted on a continuing basis, to the ultimate needs of some 14,000 men annually, and recent developments point to a potential use of the facilities by other branches of the armed forces in case of actual assignment of other units to that area. The military has expressed much appreciation of the services rendered by the Grayling institution.

Some 14 hospitals and sanitariums in the state of Michigan are under the direction of the Province of Detroit of the Sisters of Mercy. The Michigan Province of the order is under the direction of Mother Mary Raymond, R.S.M., and Mother Mary Carmelita, R.S.M.

This nursing order of sisters was established in the United States in 1840 and is the second largest nursing Order of sisters in America.

A very fine letter concerning the move of the Michigan Conserva-

The City of Grayling will be picking up garbage, etc., next Monday.

There have been three minor accidents on Main Street during the past two weeks. When folks park their cars in the parking space in the center of the street and didn't put on their hand brakes, the cars have rolled down into cars parked at the sides of the street. So don't forget to set your brakes when parking in the center.
